chart attack with HMV

Welcome to Mortal Kombat 2 month! Yep, the sizzling reviews have assured it of the top slot in all its released formats. Let's see if it can hold its position until Christmas... but expect Doom 2 to make a major, major impact next month. See you then...

all format top 10

1. ✪ Mortal Kombat 2
   ■ Acclaim ■ SNES, MD, MS, GG, GB
   This is the best conversion of a coin-op we've seen for ages. Each format has been pushed to the limit of its abilities – and it's a bloody good game too.
2. ▼ Super Street Fighter II
   ■ Sega ■ MD
   One day you're all moaning about the high price of games and the next you're out there buying essentially the same game twice. Please explain why?
3. ▼ TIE Fighter
   ■ Virgin ■ PC
   Basically X-Wing played as the enemy. This sequel is totally essential for any PC owner looking for a shoot-'em-up with depth and challenge.
4. ▼ Tetris 2
   ■ Nintendo ■ GB
   The magical addiction of Tetris returns. Not much different to the bundled original, but obviously the public want it and we don't mind it either.
5. ▼ FIFA Int. Soccer
   ■ EA ■ MD, SNES, PC
   The most atmospheric footie game around isn't as playable as everyone makes it out to be. Totally fab on the PC, though.
6. ▲ Smash Tennis
   ■ Virgin ■ SNES
   A cute tennis game which handles so well, you'll be desperate to try it out with a multitap and four pals. Very humorous, too.
7. ✪ Jungle Book
   ■ Virgin ■ MD, SNES
   One which probably sells on its big-name appeal alone, but expect it to drop big time when Earthworm Jim (see page 42) hits the scene.
8. ▼ Theme Park
   ■ EA ■ PC, Amiga
   Fancy managing a Theme Park and building rides which you can sit in? Well, that's what this game is about, and it's the business.
9. ▼ Pete Sampras Tennis
   ■ Codemasters ■ MD
   Enjoy four-player tennis in the best tennis game on the Mega Drive by far. Superb control will have you on the edge of your seat.
10. ▼ Warioland
    ■ Nintendo ■ GB
    There seems to be no end in sight for this mega-selling platform game. No complaints from us though, we play it on the way to work.
